

BETH G. COLE, ESQ.

LEGAL EXPERIENCE:

1991 to present

Williams Cedar LLC, Philadelphia, PA
Partner, September 2017 to present.

Williams, Cuker Berezofsky, Philadelphia, PA
Partner, 2008 to August 2017; Associate, 1991 to 2007.

Managing caseload involving all aspects of civil litigation and practice, including jury trials, bench trials, mediations, settlement negotiations, arbitrations and hearings, with emphasis on plaintiff's complex personal injury litigation, civil rights litigation, environmental toxic tort litigation, veteran's benefits, consumer protection and pharmaceutical litigation.

1990

Rutgers University, Camden, New Jersey
Adjunct Professor, Business Law

1988 - 1990

Glassboro State College, Glassboro, New Jersey
Adjunct Professor, Legal Environment of Business.

1980 - 1987

Gross, Sklar & Metzger, P.C., Philadelphia, PA
Associate, 1982 - 1987; Law Clerk, 1980-1982.

Managed all aspects of civil litigation and practice, including jury trials, bench trials, settlement negotiations, arbitrations and hearings, with emphasis on personal injury, products liability and medical malpractice. Also participated in securities and antitrust cases.

BAR ADMISSIONS:

Pennsylvania
U.S. District Court, Eastern Dist. of Pennsylvania
U.S. District Court, Middle Dist. of Pennsylvania
United States Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims

EDUCATION:

Temple University School of Law, Philadelphia, PA
J.D., 1982

Honors: Trial Advocacy Award of the Barristers' Society

La Salle College, Philadelphia, PA
B.A., 1979

Honors: Dean's List, four years

President, St. Thomas Moore Law Society

HONORS: Individual recognition in 2015 by U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania's Prisoner Civil Rights Panel for successfully representing hundreds of prisoners in claims that they were injured as a result of the unconstitutional conditions of the Philadelphia Prison System.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES: Arbitrator, Court of Common Pleas, Philadelphia, PA

Judge, ABA National Appellate Advocacy Competition

Judge, Penn Mock Trial, Quaker Classic Tournament

Alumni Judge, Appellate Advocacy, Temple University James E. Beasley School of Law

Moot Court Judge, ATLA/Moe Levine Trial Advocacy Honor Society, Widener University School of Law

PRESENTATIONS AND SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS:

Panelist, "Prisoner Civil Rights Litigation," Pennsylvania Bar Institute CLE Program, 2015

Presenter on Prison Conditions in conjunction with seminar on film documentary "Broken On All Sides," Villanova University School of Law, 2012

Presenter, "Social Media and Discovery," conference sponsored by Moe Levine Trial Advocacy Honor Society, Widener University Law School, 2011

Panelist, "The Uninsured Motorist," Pennsylvania Bar Institute CLE Program, 1996

MEMBERSHIPS:

Pennsylvania Bar Association
Pennsylvania Association for Justice

SELECTED COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES:

Conservation Center for Art & Historic Artifacts, a non-profit organization. Member, Board of Directors, January 2017 to present

Career Wardrobe – serving as volunteer wardrobe stylist for women reentering the workforce, 2016-2017

Dress for Success – volunteer stylist assisting women with professional attire for employment, 2015-2016

Chanticleer Condominium Association - Member, Board of Directors, 1990-1995